

Monday 20th April

Can you remember what have you learnt about how the Anglo Saxons?

Make some notes in your books like this:

- Who:

- When

- Where:

- What:

- How:

Task: write two expanded sentences using the information that you have noted down.

Here is an example.

The Anglo-Saxons, who were ancient farmer warriors over a thousand years ago, migrated from Europe to Britain across the North Sea because their homelands were flooded and they were unable to farm.

Tuesday 21st April

Can you remember what have you learnt about how the Vikings?

Make some notes in your books like this:

- Who:
- When
- Where:
- What:
- How:

Task: write two expanded sentences using the information that you have noted down.

Here is an example.

The Vikings, who were explorers and raiders, sailed across the North Sea from Scandinavia in order to attack villages on the east coast of Britain and steal from them.

Wednesday 22nd April

Remember the words and phrases that we can use to link sentences with additional information

We can use these words and phrases:

Additionally,

Furthermore,

Moreover,

In addition,

As well as this,

Also,

Task: write two pairs of sentences about the Anglo Saxons that are linked, with the second sentence giving additional information. Use your notes from Monday to help you.

For example:

The Anglo-Saxons migrated across the North Sea because their homelands were flooded. Furthermore, whole families travelled to England in order to settle and farm.

Thursday 23rd April

Remember the words and phrases that we can use to link sentences with additional information.

We can use these words and phrases:

Additionally,

Furthermore,

Moreover,

In addition,

As well as this,

Also,

Task: write two pairs of sentences about the Vikings that are linked, with the second sentence giving additional information. Use your notes from Tuesday to help you.

For example:

The Vikings sailed across the North Sea from Scandinavia to attack villages on the coast of Britain. Additionally, they travelled to explore new lands.

Friday 24th April

Remember the words that we can use to link two sentences that contain contrasting information.

We can use these words and phrases:

However,

On the other hand,

On the contrary,

In contrast,

Here is an example that we used:

Cats are often happiest when they are curled up somewhere warm. On the other hand, dogs need a lot of exercise.

Task: write two pairs of sentences that contrast the Vikings and the Anglo Saxons.

Here is an example:

The Vikings sailed across the North Sea from Scandinavia to attack villages on the coast of Britain. In contrast, the Anglo Saxons migrated in order to farm and settled peacefully in Britain.