

Monday 20th April 2020

1. What word class is the word 'raisins'?

2. Identify and correct the spelling errors in the sentence below (3).

Lily's burfday is in Febrary and Jane's is in Decemeber.

3. Turn the below statement into a question.

I love chocolate cake.

4. What are the prepositions in the sentence below?

The spider crawled under the bed, over the sock and through the door.

5. Correctly add the suffix 'ly' to the word below.

day

Monday 20th April 2020

Today we are going to be recapping our learning about clauses and conjunctions.

What is a fragment?

A fragment is an incomplete sentence.

What is a main clause?

A main clause is a sentence which makes sense on its own.

What 3 things must a sentence have to be complete?

1 subject , 1 verb and 1 complete thought.

What other things can it include?

- Description (adjectives and adverbs)
- Range of punctuation

What is a conjunction?

A conjunction is a word used to connect two clauses in a sentence.

What co-ordinating conjunctions have we learnt about so far this year?

but

so

and

What subordinating conjunctions have we learnt about so far this year?

Before

When

After

Because

Today we are going to be focusing on the subordinate conjunction ‘before’.

What does before mean?

Before means earlier than the time or event mentioned

What is the difference between a coordinating and subordinating conjunction?

Before she left, Sally gave everyone a present.

What is the conjunction in the above sentence?

What are the two parts of the sentences?
How are they joined?

Before she left, Sally gave everyone a present.

What do you notice about the two clauses?

Before she left, Sally gave everyone a present.

She gave everyone a present – is the main clause (it makes sense on its own) before she left – is the subordinate clause (it doesn't make sense on its own- it relies on the main clause)

Your task: in your red workbooks, please copy the below sentences and underline the subordinate clause.

Before you bake the cookies, you need to preheat the oven.

Before I went to school, I read with my dad.

Before being able to compete in the match, I must learn the rules.

Tuesday 21st April 2020

1. What word class is the word 'munched'?

2. Identify and correct the spelling errors in the sentence below (3).

The dokter gave the girl sum medisine to make her feel better.

3. Turn the below question into a statement.

Do you want to go to the beach?

4. Add in the missing capital letters into the sentence below:

A breed of sheep commonly found on Dartmoor is the rare greyface Dartmoor sheep.

5. Correctly add the suffix 'ly' to the word below.

angry

Tuesday 21st April 2020

Today we are going to be recapping our learning about clauses and conjunctions.

What is a fragment?

A fragment is an incomplete sentence.

What is a main clause?

A main clause is a sentence which makes sense on its own.

What 3 things must a sentence have to be complete?

1 subject , 1 verb and 1 complete thought.

What other things can it include?

- Description (adjectives and adverbs)
- Range of punctuation

What is a conjunction?

A conjunction is a word used to connect two clauses in a sentence.

What co-ordinating conjunctions have we learnt about so far this year?

but

so

and

What subordinating conjunctions have we learnt about so far this year?

Before

When

After

Because

What is the subordinate clause in the sentence below?

Before I was allowed to play, I had to do all my online learning.

What is the subordinate clause in the sentence below?

Before I was allowed to play, I had to do all my online learning.

Before I went to the park,

_____.

Before I was allowed to play with my friends, _____.

Before I go to bed every night,

_____.

Before I ate my breakfast,

_____.

Your task: in your red workbooks, please copy and complete the sentences by adding in the missing main clause.

For example:

Before I went to the park, I devoured my breakfast.

Wednesday 22nd April 2020

1. What word class is the word 'threatened'?
2. Identify and correct the spelling errors in the sentence below (3).
The class reelly enjoyed the sceince experimint.
3. Turn the below statement into a question.
Ponies roam on Dartmoor.
4. Turn the singular noun 'bee' into the plural form.
5. Correctly add the suffix 'ly' to the word below.
quick

Wednesday 22nd April 2020

Today we are going to be recapping our learning about clauses and conjunctions.

What is a fragment?

A fragment is an incomplete sentence.

What is a main clause?

A main clause is a sentence which makes sense on its own.

What 3 things must a sentence have to be complete?

1 subject , 1 verb and 1 complete thought.

What other things can it include?

- Description (adjectives and adverbs)
- Range of punctuation

What is a conjunction?

A conjunction is a word used to connect two clauses in a sentence.

What co-ordinating conjunctions have we learnt about so far this year?

but

so

and

What subordinating conjunctions have we learnt about so far this year?

Before

When

After

Because

What is the main clause in the sentence
below?

Before I ate my breakfast, I thoroughly washed my hands.

What is the main clause in the sentence
below?

Before I ate my breakfast, I thoroughly
washed my hands.

_____, I ate all my vegetables.

_____, I brushed my teeth.

_____, I cleaned my shoes.

_____, I plait my hair.

Your task: in your red workbooks, please copy and complete the sentences by adding in the missing subordinate clause- make sure you use the conjunction 'before' at the start of the sentence.

For example:

Before I was allowed a piece of cake, I ate all my vegetables.

Thursday 23rd April 2020

1. What word class is the word 'ghostly'?

2. Identify and correct the spelling errors in the sentence below (3).
Kim went to the librie and toke out for books.

3. Turn the below question into a statement.

Are there Neolithic tombs on Dartmoor?

4. Turn the singular noun 'wolf' into the plural form.

5. Correctly add the suffix 'ly' to the word below.

easy

Thursday 23rd April 2020

Today we are going to be recapping our learning about clauses and conjunctions.

What is a fragment?

A fragment is an incomplete sentence.

What is a main clause?

A main clause is a sentence which makes sense on its own.

What 3 things must a sentence have to be complete?

1 subject , 1 verb and 1 complete thought.

What other things can it include?

- Description (adjectives and adverbs)
- Range of punctuation

What is a conjunction?

A conjunction is a word used to connect two clauses in a sentence.

What co-ordinating conjunctions have we learnt about so far this year?

but

so

and

What subordinating conjunctions have we learnt about so far this year?

Before

When

After

Because

Spot the mistake...

Before bedtime, I had a glass of milk.

What is wrong with this sentence? Has the conjunction been used correctly? Explain!

Fix the mistake...

Before bedtime, I had a glass of milk.

In this sentence 'before' is a fronted adverbial, not a conjunction.

What do I need to add to ensure the 'before' is a conjunction?

Fix the mistake...

Before bedtime, I had a glass of milk.

Before I went to bed, I had a glass of milk.

Your task: in your red workbooks:

1.) create a sentence using the conjunction ‘before’ and the noun ‘water’.

2.) create a sentence using the conjunction ‘before’ and the noun ‘hair’.

3.) create a sentence using the conjunction ‘before’ and the noun ‘cake’.

For example: Before I went on my walk, I filled up my water bottle.

Friday 24th April 2020

1. What word class is the word 'pale'?

2. Identify and correct the spelling errors in the sentence below (3).

The ball droped strait into the basket.

3. What tense is the below sentence written in?

I love jumping and splashing in muddy puddles!

4. Add in the missing commas.

In the evening, the family puts on their most impressive, colourful outfits.

5. What is the contracted form of would not?

Friday 24th April 2020

Today we are going to be recapping our learning about clauses and conjunctions.

What is a fragment?

A fragment is an incomplete sentence.

What is a main clause?

A main clause is a sentence which makes sense on its own.

What 3 things must a sentence have to be complete?

1 subject , 1 verb and 1 complete thought.

What other things can it include?

- Description (adjectives and adverbs)
- Range of punctuation

What is a conjunction?

A conjunction is a word used to connect two clauses in a sentence.

What co-ordinating conjunctions have we learnt about so far this year?

but

so

and

What subordinating conjunctions have we learnt about so far this year?

Before

When

After

Because

Spot the mistake...

Before dinner, I completed my learning.

What is wrong with this sentence? Has the conjunction been used correctly? Explain!

Fix the mistake...

Before dinner, I completed my learning.

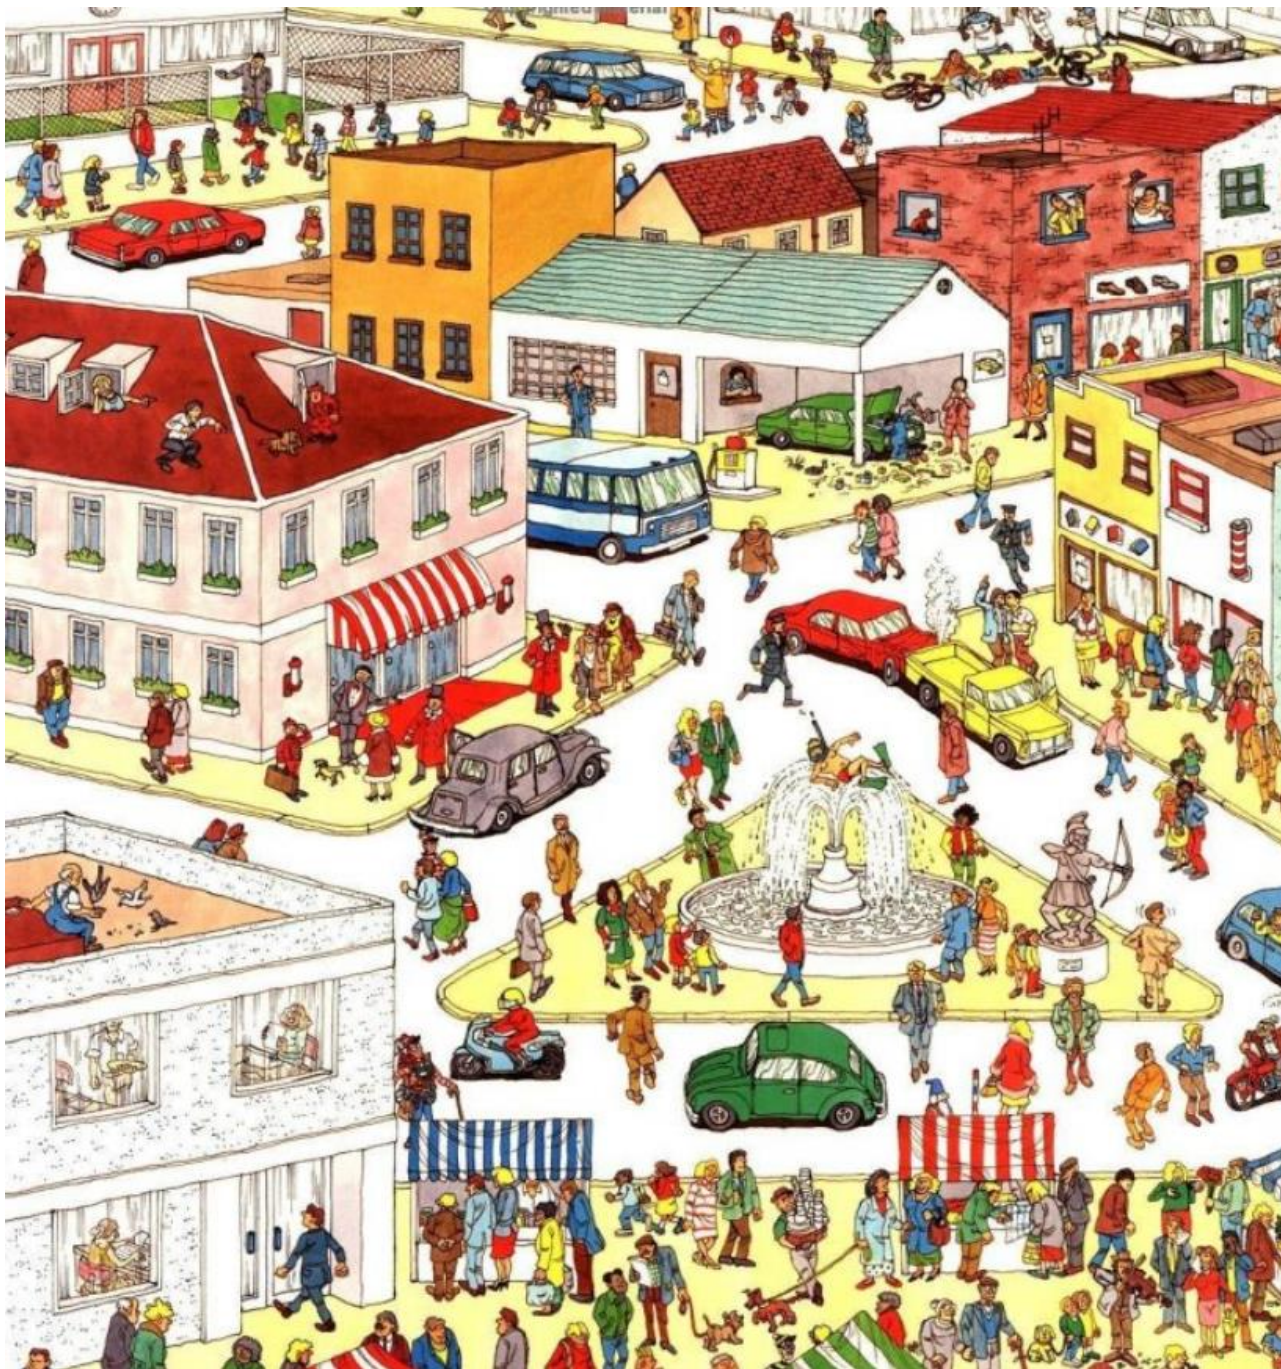

In this sentence before is a fronted adverbial, not a conjunction.

What do I need to add to ensure the 'before' is a conjunction?

Fix the mistake...

Before dinner, I completed my learning.

Before I ate my dinner, I completed my learning.

Your task: in your red workbooks, please write 3 sentences inspired by this image using the conjunction ‘before’.

For example:
Before he could cross the road, John waited for the green car to pass.